"Crossover Issues In Workers' Compensation"

"It's not just about Workers' Compensation anymore." A message from Joshua Bragg, AWCP's Fall Education Conference Chair: "This year's education conference will examine the issues that have made our field more complex than ever. No longer is it sufficient to understand just workers' compensation law. We now need to be thoroughly versed in both the industrial issues and the non-industrial issues that impact workers' compensation claims: Apportionment from non-industrial causes, ADA & the Interactive Process when trying to coordinate a RTW, scientific medical evidence and the potential impact of health care reform on workers' compensation. This conference is designed to address complex issues that make our work so challenging."

Do not miss this year's conference, with outstanding education, industry leaders as exhibitors, special keynote speaker and ending with a Special Grand Prize Drawing of $500!

Six units of CE for WCCP, MCLE, CCM, Nurses & Claims Examiners
